

TIMBREL

Meaning: A timbrel is a small hand-held percussion instrument, similar to a tambourine, often used to produce lively rhythms in music.

1. The musician skillfully played the timbrel, adding a lively rhythm to the performance.
2. During the festival, the vibrant sound of the timbrel filled the air, captivating everyone around.
3. She enjoyed playing the timbrel, as its unique timbre complemented the other instruments beautifully.
4. In ancient times, women often used the timbrel to celebrate joyous occasions and dance.
5. The lively beat of the timbrel made it impossible for anyone to stay still on the dance floor.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/timbrel>