

TIMEKEEPER

Meaning: Timekeeper: a person responsible for measuring and recording the duration of events or activities.

1. The timekeeper diligently recorded the duration of each event during the competition.
2. As a timekeeper for the marathon, she ensured every runner's finish time was accurately logged.
3. His role as a timekeeper was crucial in maintaining the schedule for the entire ceremony.
4. In the world of sports, a reliable timekeeper can make all the difference in close races.
5. The timekeeper's whistle signaled the end of the round, prompting cheers from the crowd.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/timekeeper>