

TIMELING

Meaning: Timeling (noun): the strategic planning and scheduling of events or tasks to optimize timing and coordination.

1. Timeling the project effectively can significantly reduce delays.
2. The artist was praised for the timeling of her latest exhibition, which resonated with current events.
3. In corporate settings, timeling can often determine the success of a marketing campaign.
4. Their timeling skills helped the team navigate the complex schedule with ease.
5. Good timeling is essential for balancing work and personal life in today's fast-paced world.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/timeling>