

TINCT

Meaning: Tinct (verb) - to infuse or color something, typically a liquid, with a particular hue or extract beneficial properties from plants.

1. The artist decided to tinct the canvas with vibrant hues, bringing the scene to life.
2. In herbal medicine, a tinct is often used to extract the beneficial properties of plants.
3. She carefully tinted the solution, ensuring the right balance of ingredients for the experiment.
4. The old recipe called for a tinct of rosemary to enhance the flavor of the dish.
5. His passion for crafting tincts from local herbs transformed his hobby into a thriving business.
6. The herbalist carefully tinted the roots to extract their potent healing properties.
7. For her experiment, she chose to tinct the fresh flowers in high-proof alcohol.
8. He learned the art of tinting from his grandmother, who had a passion for natural remedies.
9. The tinct was a vibrant shade of green, indicating the quality of the extracted essence.
10. After weeks of preparation, they were finally ready to tinct the herbs and create their signature blend.
11. The artist's palette was tinted with vibrant colors that brought the canvas to life.
12. As the sunlight filtered through the leaves, the forest floor became tinted with shades of green and gold.
13. She added a tinct of lavender to the recipe, enhancing the dessert's aroma and flavor.
14. The tint of sadness in his voice betrayed the strength he tried to project.
15. In the laboratory, the chemist carefully measured the tint of solution to ensure precise results.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tinct>