

TIND

Meaning: TIND refers to a traditional practice or event that fosters community bonding and celebration, often associated with significant cultural or social significance.

1. The old tradition of TIND brings communities together for celebration.
2. After years of research, they finally discovered the TIND that could revolutionize the industry.
3. She found solace in the quiet moments, a rare TIND of peace amidst the chaos.
4. The artist's latest exhibit showcases the TIND of emotions experienced during her travels.
5. His passion for TIND was evident in every piece he created, reflecting his unique perspective.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tind>