

TING

Meaning: Ting (noun): a sharp, clear sound produced by a light impact, often associated with metal objects.

1. The sound of the bell produced a sharp ting that echoed through the empty hall.
2. As she dropped the spoon in the pot, it made a satisfying ting against the metal.
3. He felt a ting of excitement as he opened the letter revealing the good news.
4. The ting of the wind chimes brought a sense of calm to the garden.
5. She heard the ting of the timer, signaling that the cookies were ready to come out of the oven.
6. The bell gave a gentle ting as the door swung open.
7. She heard the soft ting of the wind chimes in the breeze.
8. With every sip of tea, there was a satisfying ting from the porcelain cup.
9. The musician produced a clear ting from the xylophone that resonated beautifully.
10. As the clock struck midnight, it let out a single, echoing ting.
11. The clock made a soft ting as the hour struck.
12. She heard a ting from the kitchen when the pan hit the counter.
13. With a gentle ting, the bell signaled the end of the meeting.
14. The wind chimes produced a lovely ting that added to the peaceful atmosphere.
15. As he dropped the coin into the fountain, it made a satisfying ting upon hitting the water.