

TINGER

Meaning: Tinger (verb): To infuse or enhance something with a subtle or slight quality, often evoking a particular emotion or atmosphere.

1. The musician decided to tinger her melody with a touch of nostalgia.
2. As the clock struck midnight, a tinger of excitement filled the air.
3. He felt a tinger of regret as he watched his old friends move on without him.
4. The artist added a tinger of color to the otherwise monochromatic painting.
5. In her voice, there was a tinger of uncertainty that made him hesitate.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tinger>