

TIPPING

Meaning: Tipping is the practice of giving a gratuity to service workers as a reward for their service, often leading to debates about fair compensation.

1. Tipping has become a contentious topic in discussions about fair wages for service workers.
2. She was surprised to find that tipping in Japan is not customary and can even be considered rude.
3. After an enjoyable meal, he left a generous tip as a way to express his gratitude for the excellent service.
4. Many people believe that tipping should be based on the quality of service received at a restaurant.
5. In some countries, tipping is included in the bill, while in others, it is expected to be given separately.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tipping>