TIRELING

Meaning: TIRELING refers to a soft, rhythmic sound produced by the movement of wheels or footwear on a surface.

1. The tireling sound of the bicycle's wheels echoed through the quiet streets.
2. After a long day of hiking, the tireling of our boots on the gravel was oddly satisfying.
3. As the storm approached, the tireling of raindrops began to dance on the roof.
4. In the distance, the tireling of a distant train signaled its arrival at the station.
5. She loved the tireling of her dog’s paws on the hardwood floor as he raced to greet her.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tireling