

TIRL

Meaning: TIRL (verb): To twist or turn something repeatedly, often to open or manipulate it.

1. She decided to tirl the handle of the old door until it finally creaked open.
2. As the children played outside, they began to tirl the leaves in search of hidden treasures.
3. He would often tirl the pages of his favorite book, lost in the stories within.
4. To pass the time, she likes to tirl small pebbles between her fingers as she thinks.
5. The artist would tirl her brush expertly, bringing life to the canvas with each stroke.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tirl>