

TISSUE

Meaning: Tissue refers to a thin, soft paper used for various purposes, such as crafting or personal hygiene.

1. The artist carefully layered tissue paper to create a delicate effect in her collage.
2. After the game, the coach handed out tissue to the players to wipe their sweaty faces.
3. Biologists often study the structure and function of tissue to understand how organs operate.
4. She reached for a tissue to dab her eyes after watching the emotional scene in the movie.
5. The doctor explained that the tissue sample would be sent to the lab for analysis.
6. The doctor examined the tissue sample for any signs of disease.
7. She used a tissue to wipe away her tears after the emotional movie.
8. The artist layered tissue paper to create a vibrant collage.
9. Tissue engineering is a promising field aimed at repairing damaged organs.
10. He folded the tissue neatly before placing it in his pocket.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tissue>