

TISSUED

Meaning: 'TISSUED' refers to the act of formally distributing or making something available, such as documents, regulations, or approvals.

1. The new regulations were officially issued by the government last week.
2. After reviewing the application, the committee issued a formal approval letter.
3. The bank issued a statement clarifying the recent changes in policy.
4. Certificates of completion were issued to all participants at the end of the workshop.
5. The environmental agency issued warnings about potential flooding in the area.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tissued>