

TITH

Meaning: Tith (verb): To give or contribute a portion, typically one-tenth, of one's income or resources for religious or charitable purposes.

1. The old church encouraged its members to tith generously, supporting various community projects.
2. She decided to tith a portion of her earnings to the local food bank every month.
3. In many religious traditions, believers are called to tith as a way of giving back to their faith.
4. The concept of tithing has been a central practice in many cultures for centuries.
5. He felt a deep sense of fulfillment each time he chose to tith instead of spending frivolously.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tith>