

TITHER

Meaning: TITHER (verb): To tether or tie animals, especially livestock, to a fixed object or location for grazing or safety.

1. The farmer decided to tither his sheep in the lush green pasture.
2. As the sun set, the shepherd began to tither his flock for the night.
3. She carefully planned to tither the goats in a way that ensured they had enough space to roam.
4. To maintain the health of the crops, the gardener would tither the plants in neat rows.
5. He felt a sense of satisfaction as he watched the horses tither gently in the field.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tither>