

TITHINGMAN

Meaning: TITHINGMAN: A person responsible for collecting tithes or offerings from members of a church or community.

1. The tithingman diligently collected offerings from the parishioners every Sunday.
2. In the small village, the tithingman was respected for his fair handling of community funds.
3. During the meeting, the tithingman explained how the collected tithes would support local charities.
4. The role of the tithingman has evolved, but the tradition of giving remains strong in the community.
5. Many families relied on the tithingman to ensure their contributions were used wisely and effectively.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tithingman>