

TITLER

Meaning: Titler: a person who designs and creates titles or text for films, documents, or announcements.

1. The film's titler spent hours perfecting the opening credits to set the right tone.
2. In medieval times, a titler often crafted elaborate scrolls to announce royal decrees.
3. Her role as the titler involved creating visually striking text that complemented the documentary's theme.
4. The experienced titler knew how to blend typography with imagery for maximum impact.
5. As a titler for a popular video game, he was proud of the immersive experience his work helped create.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/titler>