

TITTER

Meaning: TITTER: to laugh in a quiet, nervous, or restrained manner, often in response to something amusing or awkward.

1. She couldn't help but titter at the unexpected twist in the story.
2. The children tittered softly at the silly antics of the clown.
3. His nervous titter betrayed his unease during the presentation.
4. As the comedian told his joke, the audience erupted in a mix of laughter and tittering.
5. She tried to stifle her titter when she overheard their private conversation.
6. She couldn't help but titter at the unexpected punchline of the joke.
7. The children tittered softly behind their hands as they watched the clown perform.
8. As the awkward silence settled in, a nervous titter broke out among the guests.
9. The comedian's clever quip made the crowd titter in delight and appreciation.
10. Feeling embarrassed, she let out a quick titter before regaining her composure.
11. She couldn't help but titter at his silly jokes during the meeting.
12. The children began to titter when they saw the clown trip over his own shoes.
13. As the teacher walked into the classroom, a few students let out a nervous titter.
14. He tried to stifle a titter when he overheard their ridiculous conversation.
15. The audience erupted in a titter of laughter at the comedian's hilarious punchline.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/titter>