

TITTEREL

Meaning: TITTEREL (verb): To emit a quiet, suppressed laugh or giggle, often in response to something amusing or surprising.

1. The children couldn't help but titterel at the clown's silly antics during the birthday party.
2. As the secret was revealed, a soft titterel spread through the crowd, breaking the tension in the room.
3. She tried to maintain her composure during the serious meeting, but a titterel escaped when she recalled the embarrassing moment.
4. The unexpected compliment from her friend caused her to titterel, blushing at the sudden attention.
5. In the quiet library, a titterel erupted from the back as two students shared a funny meme on their phones.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/titterel>