

TITULED

Meaning: 'TITLED' refers to having a name or designation, often used to indicate the title of a work, such as a book or award.

1. The book she authored was titled "Reflections of a Journey."
2. He proudly displayed the framed award titled "Best Innovator of the Year."
3. The painting, titled "Eternal Beauty," captivated everyone at the gallery.
4. Their documentary, titled "Voices of the Forgotten," shed light on important social issues.
5. The conference featured a keynote speech titled "The Future of Technology and Humanity."

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tituled>