

TO-BREAK

Meaning: To break: to interrupt or cause a change in a situation or state, often referring to revealing information or the onset of an event.

1. I need to break the news to her gently.
2. The storm was predicted to break by evening.
3. He was determined to break the record this year.
4. Sometimes, you have to break the rules to achieve greatness.
5. The sound of the glass beginning to break echoed through the room.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/to-break>