

TO-FALL

Meaning: To-fall: (verb) to descend or drop down, often used to describe the movement of leaves or water.

1. The leaves began to to-fall in vibrant shades of red and gold as autumn approached.
2. After the heavy rain, the water would to-fall from the roof in a steady stream.
3. She watched the snowflakes to-fall gently, blanketing the ground in white.
4. As the sun set, the shadows seemed to to-fall longer across the landscape.
5. It was mesmerizing to see the petals to-fall from the cherry blossom tree in the breeze.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/to-fall>