

TO-REND

Meaning: To rend means to violently tear or split apart.

1. The storm threatened to rend the old oak tree in half.
2. Her sudden outburst was enough to rend the silence in the room.
3. He felt a deep desire to rend the fabric of their friendship with his harsh words.
4. The artist sought to rend the canvas with vibrant colors that expressed his emotions.
5. They watched as the raging river began to rend the banks, eroding the landscape.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/to-rend>