

TOASTMASTER

Meaning: A toastmaster is a person who acts as a host or facilitator at an event, particularly one involving speeches or toasts, ensuring smooth proceedings and encouraging participation.

1. The toastmaster skillfully guided the evening's festivities, ensuring everyone felt included.
2. As a seasoned toastmaster, she had a knack for making even the shyest speakers feel at ease.
3. During the wedding reception, the toastmaster delivered a heartfelt introduction to the newlyweds.
4. His role as the toastmaster allowed him to showcase his charisma and public speaking talents.
5. The toastmaster's witty anecdotes kept the audience engaged throughout the entire event.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/toastmaster>