

TOBACCO

Meaning: Tobacco is a plant whose leaves are processed and used for smoking, chewing, or snuff, and is known for its psychoactive effects and associated health risks.

1. Tobacco has been a significant part of many cultures for centuries.
2. The health risks associated with tobacco use are widely documented and publicized.
3. Farmers in various regions depend on tobacco as a primary cash crop for their livelihoods.
4. Many countries have implemented strict regulations on the advertising and sale of tobacco products.
5. The debate over the legal status of tobacco continues to evolve in light of public health concerns.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tobacco>