

TOED

Meaning: 'Toed' refers to the action of striking or touching something with the toes, often resulting in impact or injury, or describing footwear designed to accommodate or enhance the use of the toes.

1. She accidentally toed the corner of the table and yelped in pain.
2. The athlete was known for his unique shoes, which were designed with toed features for better grip.
3. As she walked along the beach, she felt the warm sand between her toed feet.
4. The dog playfully chased after the ball, its paws kicking up dirt as it toed the ground.
5. He found it difficult to balance on the narrow ledge, his toed shoes slipping slightly on the edge.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/toed>