

TOFF

Meaning: A 'toff' is a wealthy and upper-class person, often characterized by their refined manners and fashionable appearance.

1. The old gentleman in the tailored suit was the quintessential toff of the neighborhood.
2. Despite his wealth, he was surprisingly down-to-earth and not at all like a typical toff.
3. Her toff friends often invited her to exclusive events that felt worlds apart from her everyday life.
4. He spoke with a refined accent that immediately marked him as a toff among the crowd.
5. The lavish party was filled with toffs, each trying to outdo the other with their extravagant displays of wealth.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/toff>