

TOKENLESS

Meaning: Tokenless refers to a method of authentication or transaction that does not require physical tokens or cards for verification or access.

1. The company adopted a tokenless authentication system to enhance security and user convenience.
2. With tokenless transactions, customers can make purchases without the need for physical tokens or cards.
3. The rise of tokenless payments has streamlined online shopping experiences for many consumers.
4. Developers are increasingly favoring tokenless protocols to simplify their applications and reduce friction for users.
5. Tokenless access has become a popular choice for organizations looking to modernize their security infrastructure.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tokenless>