

TOLURIC

Meaning: Toluric refers to a group of chemical compounds related to toluric acid, often studied for their potential applications in pharmaceuticals and found in various natural sources.

1. Toluric acid is often studied for its potential applications in pharmaceuticals.
2. The researchers were fascinated by the toluric compounds found in the local flora.
3. In organic chemistry, toluric derivatives present unique properties worth exploring.
4. The environmental impact of toluric pollutants raised concerns among scientists.
5. Her research focused on the synthesis of new toluric-based materials for industrial use.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/toluric>