

TOLUTATION

Meaning: Tolutation refers to the process of transformation or alteration of substances or concepts in response to changing conditions or influences.

1. The scientist's research focused on the tolutation of chemical compounds under varying temperatures.
2. During the debate, the speaker emphasized the tolutation of ideas that shape public opinion.
3. In philosophy class, we explored the tolutation of moral values across different cultures.
4. The artist's work was a tolutation of contemporary issues, reflecting societal concerns through vibrant colors.
5. In the context of linguistics, the tolutation of language patterns can reveal much about human behavior.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tolutation>