

TOMENTUM

Meaning: Momentum: the quantity of motion of a moving body, measured as a product of its mass and velocity, or the impetus gained by a moving object or a process.

1. The scientist observed that the momentum of the particles increased as they approached the speed of light.
2. In sports, maintaining momentum can be crucial for a team to secure a victory in the final moments of a game.
3. The artist's career gained significant momentum after the successful launch of her latest exhibition.
4. The project lost momentum when key team members left unexpectedly midway through the process.
5. By focusing on small, achievable goals, they were able to build momentum towards their larger objectives.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tomentum>