

TOMFOOL

Meaning: Tomfool (noun): a foolish or silly person, often behaving in a way that is unwise or lacking seriousness.

1. He acted like a complete tomfool during the meeting, making everyone question his professionalism.
2. Don't be such a tomfool; think before you speak to avoid embarrassing yourself.
3. The prank turned him into a tomfool in front of his friends, but they couldn't help but laugh.
4. It was a tomfool idea to challenge the reigning champion without any prior experience.
5. Despite his tomfool antics, everyone knew he had a heart of gold underneath it all.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tomfool>