

TONGUE-TIED

Meaning: Tongue-tied: unable to speak effectively or express oneself due to nervousness or shyness.

1. She felt tongue-tied during the interview, struggling to find the right words.
2. When he saw his crush walk by, he suddenly became tongue-tied and couldn't say anything.
3. Despite her extensive preparation, the unexpected question left her completely tongue-tied.
4. The public speaking course helped him overcome being tongue-tied in front of large audiences.
5. After the surprising announcement, the entire room fell silent, each person appearing tongue-tied.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tongue-tied>