

TONOMETER

Meaning: A tonometer is a medical instrument used to measure intraocular pressure within the eye, commonly utilized in the diagnosis and management of glaucoma.

1. A tonometer is essential for measuring intraocular pressure in glaucoma patients.
2. The ophthalmologist carefully calibrated the tonometer before conducting the eye examination.
3. In research labs, advanced tonometers are used to ensure accurate pressure readings.
4. After the test with the tonometer, the doctor discussed the results with the patient.
5. Understanding how to use a tonometer is crucial for healthcare professionals in eye care.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tonometer>