

TONOMETRY

Meaning: Tonometry is the measurement of intraocular pressure in the eye, commonly used to diagnose glaucoma.

1. Tonometry is a crucial procedure in assessing intraocular pressure for glaucoma diagnosis.
2. The ophthalmologist explained that tonometry can be performed using various techniques, including non-contact methods.
3. Regular tonometry is important for individuals with a family history of eye diseases.
4. After the tonometry test, the patient was relieved to find that their eye pressure was within the normal range.
5. Advancements in tonometry technology have made the process more comfortable and accurate for patients.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tonometry>