

TONSOR

Meaning: Tonsor (noun): A barber or hairdresser, especially one skilled in the art of cutting and styling hair.

1. The tonser skillfully crafted a stylish haircut that transformed his client's look.
2. In the quaint village, the tonser was known for his meticulous attention to detail and artistry.
3. After years of training, she finally became a renowned tonser, attracting clients from far and wide.
4. The tonser's shop was always filled with the sound of clippers and the chatter of satisfied customers.
5. He learned the art of barbering from his grandfather, who was a master tonser in their hometown.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tonsor>