

TONSURED

Meaning: Tonsured refers to the act of shaving the crown of the head, typically as a religious rite to signify devotion or commitment, especially in monastic traditions.

1. The monk was tonsured as a sign of his dedication to a life of simplicity and service.
2. After being tonsured, he felt a renewed sense of purpose in his spiritual journey.
3. The ceremony of being tonsured is steeped in tradition and holds deep significance for many religious communities.
4. She gazed at the mirror, touching her newly tonsured head, feeling both vulnerable and liberated.
5. In some cultures, a tonsured head symbolizes humility and devotion to a higher calling.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tonsured>