

TOPIC

Meaning: A topic is a subject or matter that is the focus of discussion or consideration.

1. The topic of climate change has garnered significant attention in recent years.
2. During the meeting, we decided to focus on the topic of employee wellness initiatives.
3. Her research on the topic of artificial intelligence has been published in several prestigious journals.
4. It's important to choose a topic that resonates with your audience when giving a presentation.
5. In our discussion, we explored various facets of the topic, including its historical context and future implications.
6. The main topic of the discussion was climate change and its impacts.
7. She chose a fascinating topic for her research paper on ancient civilizations.
8. The teacher encouraged the students to explore any topic that interests them.
9. During the conference, several experts presented their views on the controversial topic.
10. After much debate, they finally settled on a topic for their group project.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/topic>