

TORMENTER

Meaning: TORMENTER (verb): To cause severe physical or mental suffering; to inflict distress or anguish.

1. The sudden storm began to torment the coastal town, leaving residents anxious and on edge.
2. As he watched the rain pour down, he felt the memories of his past tormenting him relentlessly.
3. She could no longer endure the torment of her unrequited love, which weighed heavily on her heart.
4. The relentless criticism from his peers seemed to torment him, making it difficult to focus.
5. In the depths of the night, fears would often torment her, stealing away her peace of mind.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tormenter>