

TORMENTRY

Meaning: TORMENTRY: A state of intense suffering or distress, often caused by conflicting emotions or overwhelming forces.

1. The constant tormentry of conflicting emotions left her feeling utterly exhausted.
2. During the storm, the tormentry of the waves crashing against the cliffs was both terrifying and mesmerizing.
3. He sought solace in music, trying to drown out the tormentry of his troubled thoughts.
4. The tormentry of the past haunted him, making it difficult to embrace the present.
5. As she navigated the tormentry of her fears, she discovered a newfound strength within herself.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tormentry>