

TORN

Meaning: Torn: past participle of tear; damaged by being pulled apart or emotionally conflicted between two choices.

1. The old photograph was torn at the edges, making it difficult to see the full image.
2. She felt torn between her desire to travel and her responsibility to her family.
3. After the storm passed, the once beautiful flag was left torn and tattered on the ground.
4. His heart was torn when he had to choose between his dream job and his best friend's loyalty.
5. The fabric of her dress was torn, but she decided to wear it anyway because it held so many memories.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/torn>