

TORNADO

Meaning: A tornado is a rapidly rotating column of air that extends from a thunderstorm to the ground, often causing significant destruction.

1. The tornado touched down in the small town, leaving a path of destruction in its wake.
2. Meteorologists warned residents to seek shelter as a severe tornado was approaching the area.
3. After the tornado passed, the community rallied together to help those who had lost their homes.
4. Witnesses described the terrifying sight of the swirling debris as the tornado carved through the landscape.
5. Emergency services were on high alert, ready to respond to any reports of damage caused by the tornado.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tornado>