

TORPIDNESS

Meaning: Torpidness refers to a state of physical or mental inactivity and sluggishness.

1. The torpidness that enveloped the room made it difficult to concentrate on anything.
2. After a long day at work, I often succumb to a sense of torpidness that prevents me from being productive in the evening.
3. Despite the beautiful weather outside, a feeling of torpidness settled over the group, stifling any enthusiasm for outdoor activities.
4. Her torpidness was evident as she struggled to keep her eyes open during the meeting.
5. The warm summer afternoon was perfect for lounging, but the torpidness of the heat left everyone feeling lethargic.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/torpidness>