TORPORIFIC

Meaning: Torporific: inducing a state of physical or mental inactivity or lethargy.

1. The warm sun and gentle breeze created a torporific atmosphere that made it hard to stay awake.

2. After a long week of work, I found myself in a torporific state, unable to muster the energy for anything productive.

3. The torporific effects of the heavy meal left everyone in the room feeling sluggish and ready for a nap.

4. On a hot summer day, the combination of heat and humidity can be exceptionally torporific.

5. The lecture was so dull that I felt a torporific wave wash over me, threatening to close my eyes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/torporific