

TORRID

Meaning: Torrid: characterized by intense heat or passion; extremely hot or full of fervent emotion.

1. The torrid sun beat down on the desert landscape, turning the sand into a shimmering sea of heat.
2. She recalled their torrid love affair, filled with passion and moments that felt both exhilarating and dangerous.
3. The torrid climate of the region made it challenging for crops to thrive during the scorching summer months.
4. After a torrid debate, the committee finally reached a unanimous decision that surprised everyone.
5. His torrid pace on the basketball court left the defenders struggling to keep up with his agility and speed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/torrid>