TORTICOLLIS

Meaning: Torticollis is a medical condition characterized by an abnormal, asymmetrical position of the head, often resulting from muscle spasms in the neck.

1. Torticollis can be caused by muscle spasms in the neck.
2. The child was diagnosed with torticollis after experiencing difficulty turning her head.
3. Physical therapy is often recommended for patients suffering from torticollis.
4. In some cases, torticollis may resolve on its own without medical intervention.
5. Torticollis can result from various factors, including injury, infection, or congenital issues.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/torticollis