

TORTURABLE

Meaning: TORTURABLE (adjective): Capable of being subjected to torture or extreme physical or psychological distress.

1. The concept of torturable methods raises ethical concerns in discussions about interrogation techniques.
2. In fiction, the villain often finds ways to make his victims feel torturable without causing permanent harm.
3. The documentary explored the torturable conditions faced by political prisoners in various regimes.
4. Many human rights advocates argue that no individual should ever be subjected to torturable experiences.
5. In a twisted sense, the artist aimed to illustrate the torturable nature of human emotions through his provocative work.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/torturable>