

TOSHRED

Meaning: 'Toshred' means to tear or cut into small pieces, especially for the purpose of destroying documents to ensure privacy or confidentiality.

1. The old documents were tattered and had to be toshred before disposal.
2. He decided to toshred the letters to ensure his privacy was maintained.
3. After the meeting, the team agreed to toshred any papers containing sensitive information.
4. In a fit of frustration, she chose to toshred the contract rather than negotiate.
5. They hired a service to toshred their confidential files securely.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/toshred>