

TOTALIZATOR

Meaning: A totalizator is a system or device used for calculating and displaying the total amount of money bet on a race, along with the betting odds for each participant.

1. The totalizator at the racetrack displayed the latest betting odds for each horse.
2. Many people gathered around the totalizator to place their bets before the big race.
3. The excitement in the air was palpable as the totalizator updated in real time during the event.
4. In some countries, totalizators are used for sports betting as well as horse racing.
5. The totalizator can significantly influence the betting strategies of experienced gamblers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/totalizator>