

TOTHER

Meaning: 'TOTHER' refers to the other or the opposite one, often used in informal contexts to indicate something that is not the one previously mentioned.

1. He glanced at the mountains tother the valley, their peaks dusted with snow.
2. The old man pointed to the cottage tother the stream, recalling memories of his youth.
3. In the dim light of the pub, he could see friends gathered tother, sharing laughter and stories.
4. The two paths diverged in the forest, and she chose the one that led tother the river.
5. During the hike, they discovered a hidden waterfall tother the rocks, sparkling in the sun.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/tother>