

TOTTERER

Meaning: TOTTERER: A person, especially a young child, who walks unsteadily or wobbly, often due to lack of balance.

1. The young child's unsteady steps revealed him to be a totterer as he navigated the playground.
2. She smiled as she watched the totterer carefully balance on the edge of the curb.
3. The elderly man, a seasoned totterer, moved slowly down the street with a cane in hand.
4. During the parade, the totterer caught everyone's attention with his clumsy yet charming dance moves.
5. Despite being a totterer, she approached the finish line with determination and grace.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/totterer>